Jurrien Stomphorst

Designer / Creative Director

Profile

I believe conscious businesses have the power to transform society. They build trust authentically through purpose, values and actions. I'm here to help define them and passionately communicate them. I like to connect and be inspired by creatives, agencies and forward thinking brands that see the same bright future. Great minds think differently, together.

Interests

I have a thing for the bombastic, yet very intimite and romantic symphonies of Rachmaninov. My passion is to compose contemporary classical music, Have a listen on jurstomphorst.com. I deeply enjoy the peace and quiet of nature walks. I can completely come to rest when I surf or snowboard. I get inspired and bewondered by foreign cultures.
